

Biography
For
Charlotte Ingram

Charlotte has served Christ since the age of eight. She is a wife, mother, author, ordained minister, and co-founder of ARK Ministry. She has held various ministry positions in Tennessee, Alabama, Florida and overseas. Her areas of service have included: teacher, youth and children's choir director, praise and worship leader, children's church pastor, ladies ministries director, board member for Christian Women of Amman, Amman Jordan, care pastor, small group leader and instructor for Global Church Network's School of Ministry. She and husband Donny have a heart for seeing souls saved and families strengthened. Their focus is success in the home.

Charlotte has been married to Donny for over 34 years. They have raised three sons. She has two wonderful daughters-in-law and three beautiful grand children. Charlotte has also served in city government and the banking industry.

For more information on their ministry visit www.successinthehome.com.